BBC'S GOOD FOOD SHOW NEC BIRMINGHAM

Thursday, 27th November, 2008

Cost £25 to include entry, demonstration by James Martin the TV Chef, coach and gratuity

A visit to the Good Food Show will whet your appetite and it will entertain and delight everyone. A live cookery demonstration by the famous James Martin is a bonus and tickets have been reserved for us.

This is the biggest food and drink Show with over 600 exhibitors. Plenty of opportunities for tasting many varieties of food and drinks. I'm told there is no need to take your own sandwiches for lunch!
